

Chapter 22

Developing & Coordinating Human Services

1. Which type of services suggests a bringing together of a collection of programs that can be customized for a particular individual or family to meet a variety of needs.
  - A. Continuum of Care
  - B. Constellation
  - C. Coalition
  - D. Collaborative Structures
2. Which term suggests a different view of service delivery in that it emphasizes the degree of intensity along a range of services from preventive care to limited care to highly intensive care?
  - A. Continuum of Care
  - B. Constellation
  - C. Coalition
  - D. Collaborative Structures
3. The fundamental assumption of a collaborative process is common community interest exist that compel people to transcend their special interest for the common good of
  - A. college students
  - B. state workers
  - C. elder s
  - D. meeting community needs
4. A _____ approach requires organization to harmonize ways of working together on many community problems such as unemployment and inadequate housing.
  - A. Collaborative
  - B. Coalition
  - C. Coordinating
  - D. Fundamental
5. Which is not a kind of structural arrangements?
  - A. Neighborhood Family Network
  - B. Multi-Services Center
  - C. Consortium Partnership
  - D. Coalitions
6. _____ was created in the 1960's by local anti-poverty programs that sought to provide a variety of programs.
  - A. Consortium Partnership
  - B. Multi-Service Center
  - C. Coordinating Structure Based on Target Population
  - D. Neighborhood Family Network
7. _____ is known as federation these are free standing, non-profit organizations that feature their local funding.
  - A. Social Planning Organization
  - B. Coordinating Structure
  - C. Local Planning
  - D. None of the Above

Chapter 22

Developing & Coordinating Human Services

8. _____ is becoming involved in social planning and is known as community problem solving.
- A. Government Planning Efforts
  - B. Coalitions
  - C. Community Development
  - D. United Way
9. _____ is an essential part of every community.
- A. Government Planning Efforts
  - B. Coalitions
  - C. Social Planning
  - D. United Way
10. Which is a type of Local Planning council?
- A. United Way
  - B. Coalitions
  - C. Government Planning
  - D. All of the above