

International social work practice quiz

Name: _____

1. What does volunteering opportunities provide?
  - a. a way of temporarily immersing oneself in another culture.
  - b. meeting people who are as committed as you are to improving the human condition.
  - c. making a genuine contribution to those in need
  - d. all the above.

2. Issues such as AIDS, unemployment, social dislocation, inadequate healthcare, and the consequences of severe poverty know _____ country bounds.
  - a. no
  - b. limited
  - c. some
  - d. all the above.

3. Exposure to people from different cultural backgrounds can help social workers...
  - a. understand and respond to the unique social-cultural forces that shape human needs.
  - b. remain ethnocentric
  - c. learn nothing
  - d. hold tightly to your own cultural values and not let yourself experience a life transforming opportunity.

4. International Social Workers can be involved with many issues and services, some include:
  - a. Social Work with Refugees
  - b. Environmental and Sustainable Growth
  - c. International Social Development
  - d. all the above.

5. International Organizations include:
  - a. United Nations Agencies (i.e. UNICEF)
  - b. U.S. Government Agencies (i.e. The Peace Corps)
  - c. Professional Organizations (i.e. IFSW)
  - d. All the above.

6. Environmental and Sustainable Growth challenges:
  - a. human rights violations
  - b. environmental plundering
  - c. both a and b
  - d. none of the above

7. Nongovernmental organizations...
- a. carry major responsibility for development and delivery of social services at the local level in foreign countries.
  - b. are also known as civil societies
  - c. in the U.S. would be referred to as private nonprofit organizations.
  - d. all the above.
8. When considering working or volunteering abroad...
- a. force your own agenda and initiate projects without full participation of local community residents.
  - b. approach working with people with an attitude of helping them carry out their objectives and encouraging them in their efforts.
  - c. approach helping without attempting to understand the culture of the community.
  - d. do NOT contact the Center for Disease Control and Prevention to enhance health decisions and to learn about special environmental conditions.
9. Because of growing human service needs throughout the world, international efforts to improve living conditions will continue to _____.
- a. expand
  - b. decrease
  - c. shrink
  - d. all the above
10. All the following statements are true about Community-Based Organizations EXCEPT:
- a. CBOs function at the grass-roots level
  - b. CBOs sometimes evolve from a small self-help group
  - c. CBOs would participate in an income-producing cooperative
  - d. CBOs would never take on a project of building a well to benefit the community